

HUMAN RIGHTS

Easy Read

It is easy to find information about your human rights . Sometimes it is difficult to understand.

This booklet given to you by Branches of Life will help you understand your human rights.

In this booklet you will read about your human rights.

Branches of Life is making all of our information into an easy to read booklet so everyone can understand more about human rights.

Virginia and The United States of America have laws to make sure all people are treated equally and fairly.

We are working to stop discrimination against all people no matter their disability, gender, sexual orientation, religion, race, or culture.

Branches of Life wants to make sure that your rights are respected.

Human rights are about how we treat each other.

Human rights are about:

- Respect
- Freedom
- Equality
- Dignity
- Fairness

Knowing your rights can help you advocate for yourself.

A Job Training, Career Prep, & Daily Life Support Center

Our mission is to be the best. We want to help people with intellectual disabilities and Autism have great lives full of choice, respect, and experiences.

We will educate and support our clients, their caregivers, their families and the community to eliminate disability based discrimination.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

All people are equal and will be treated with dignity and respect.

Making decisions and managing personal funds is a human right.

Variety is the spice of life.

People have the right to freedom from discrimination.

All people have the ability to be employed.

All people can participate fully in their community.

We will help build full and rich lives.

Our services are research based.

All people can learn.

The fastest way is not always the best way.

The Complaint Process

A complaint is when you tell someone about problems or concerns.

There are a few ways you can get your concerns heard or file a complaint.

If you have a concern, problem, or complaint you should always tell a Director, Program Supervisor, or Life Coach at Branches of Life.

Complaints are okay. Letting your thoughts be heard is advocating of yourself.

Your caregiver or advocate can also make a complaint for you.

When you make a complaint we will listen and help solve the issue. It is your right to talk about a concern, problem, or complaint.

After talking about it if you still feel like your problem, concern, or complaint was not fixed you may start a formal complaint process.

The Directors (Traci, Jessee, and Wendi) will help you file a formal complaint. It is their job to make sure your problems are heard.

You are special.
You are important.

You have rights.

Knowing your rights will help you
advocate for yourself.

It is your life.

If you have questions about your rights
you can talk to Branches of Life Directors
Traci, Jessee, and Wendi.

WHEN PEOPLE KNOW THEIR RIGHTS THEY ARE LESS LIKELY TO BE ABUSED. THIS BOOKLET WAS DEVELOPED BY THE DIRECTORS OF BRANCHES OF LIFE. IT IS OUR HOPE TO HELP INDI-VIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES TO UNDERSTAND AND KNOW THEIR RIGHTS.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER.
